

CORRESPONDENCE.

From A. J. Thompson.

Last Monday was a breezy in Midea.

The grading of streets is progressing finely.

Mrs McKay has entered upon her duties as school teacher of this place.

George McDonald is grading in front of his lot preparatory to a sidewalk.

The M. E. Society are fencing in their church property.

Rev Mr Woodmanse, congregationalist, from Lexington, preached in the M. E. church on Thursday evening.

Mrs Richard Brown is at Bad Axe visiting her daughter Mrs DeLong.

It is the wish of respectable people in Midea that the proprietor of that establishment with screens in front was in heaven, and his building converted into something else.

The "band" is preparing for another entertainment this week.

Miss Odie Rice is visiting friends in Canada this week.

The wind, last Sabbath evening, blew down our liberty pole.

That intended Beer House at the east end of the village, is for sale or rent. Thank God.

The Bell Ringers visit Midea this week.

Lippincott's Magazine.

—There is a lavish amount of entertaining reading in Lippincott's Magazine for June. In "Vagaries of Western Architecture," Frederick G. Mather takes up the history of a representative Western city, "Joinwater," which is apparently a pseudonym for Cleveland, and traces its growth and social changes during the ten decades of its existence, has exemplified in the successive styles of building adopted by its citizens, from the log hut of the first settlers to the "Newport Villa" of the present day. The illustrations, including a fine frontispiece, exhibit the development from one style to another through successive modifications at a glance, and help to render the article a real contribution to that social history of our country which is now attracting wide attention. "The London Season" is capably described by Norman Pearson, who, among other sketches, gives us one of a class of young men closely resembling our own "Dudes," but known in English society as "Mashers." "Poor Jack: His Joys and his sorrows," by Franklin North, carries us to the other end of the social scale, and depicts the condition and peculiarities of the sailor or under the pathetic as well as humorous aspects, while laying particular stress on the slight protections afforded to the men of our merchant marine, and the consequent impositions practiced upon them by ship-owners, masters, and boarding-house keepers. Kate Hillard gives an amusing description of "A Roman Pension," with its queer arrangement of rooms and its cosmopolitan inmates. "A Night with Remeny," by E. J. S., will be found especially delightful by all who have ever listened to the playing of the great Hungarian violinist, whose passionate devotion to his art and genial eccentricities in private life are vividly depicted in this sketch. "Animals Extinct Within Human Memory," by O. F. Holder, is an interesting paper of a popular scientific character, and Mrs Margaret J. Preston's account of the American sculptor Ezekiel, whose portrait bust of Lizet is now on exhibition in New York, is timely and appreciative.

There is no need to call attention to "The Jewel in the Lotus," of which a long instalment is given in this number, and which maintains its interest and charm without abatement. "Leander," by Marion Couthour, is a striking and pathetic story, and "Eton Slocum's Miracle," by Robert C. Meyers, is a queer bit of character drawing. The poetry, "Monthly Gossip," and book reviews are of the usual excellence.

$5 REWARD.—For the return of a two-year-old colt which strayed away from my premises 2 miles south and one mile west of Brockway Centre on Wednesday, May 16th, 1883. Description—Brown mare, with small star in forehead and had a broken pipe on her neck. Any information leading to her recovery will be thankfully received.

CALVIN RUSSELL.

MARRIED.—At the residence of the bride's parents in Speaker on Thursday, May 17th, by the Rev Geo Carter Mr John W. Robinson to Miss Sarah A. Huntly. May your days be many and full of happiness is the wish of your friends. The marriage ceremony was witnessed by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. After partaking of the good things prepared by Mrs Huntly the friends departed well satisfied with the proceedings.

For Sale.—My store, and house and lot in Brockway Centre also my farm 1 1/2 miles north of Brockway Centre. For further particulars and terms apply to Wm McDonald.

Additional Expositions.

—We are pleased to notice G. W. Bell again on our streets.

—Quite a number from here went to Port Huron on Friday last to witness the game of base ball played between the Port Huron's and Philadelphia. Pt H. came out victorious.

—A few days since we noticed with sorrow the removal of E. M. Cady from the custom house at Port Huron where the important duties assigned him have been very faithfully discharged for the term of fifteen years, during which time he has made many very warm friends in this and other sections of the country. There are but few, if any, of the stock raisers, shippers or movers into this state and of the southwest, west and northwest who have come in contact with Mr Cady but what cherished the most kindly feelings for the present and future prosperity of one who has so generously assisted in pushing forward the enormous shipments of stock, merchandise, moveables &c, that have from time to time had to pass through his place of business. We have no doubt but the present incumbent will faithfully attend to the duties of the office, but it is only due to Mr Cady to express our regret at his removal.

SOLDIERS' ATTENTION!—Milo B. Stevens & Co., the well known War Claim Attorneys, will be represented at Port Huron Wednesday and Thursday June 6th and 7th 83 by their special Agent. Soldiers and others interested in claims for pension, increase of Pensions, Arrears of pay and Bounty of those charged with desertion or other claims, it is hoped will give him a call. His whereabouts may be ascertained at the office of the County Clerk.

AUCTION SALE.—G. W. Bell, auctioneer, will sell for the undersigned by public auction at his residence one-half mile east of Brockway Centre on Thursday, June 14th, all of his stock, farm implements, &c., consisting of 1 span working horses, 1 2-year-old colt, 1 3-year-old colt, 1 cow, six head of cattle and various other articles too numerous to mention. A. S. MEDDAUGH

Clear and Beautiful.

After using Hamilton's Oriental Balm, the skin will have a fresh, clear and beautiful appearance. Entirely free from the greasiness and all blotches. It is so perfectly harmless that it cannot fail to please the most fastidious. We recommend it to all ladies. Price 50 cents per bottle. Sold by C. A. Wells & Co.

PILES.

Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, as flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching, particularly at night after getting warm in bed, is a very common attendant. Internal, External and itching piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosanko's pile remedy, which acts directly upon the parts affected, absorbing the tumors, allaying the intense itching, and affording a permanent cure where all other remedies have failed. Do not delay until the drain on the system produces permanent disability, but try it and be cured. Price, 50 cents. Ask your druggist for it, and when you can not obtain it of him, we will send it, prepaid, on receipt of price. Address the Dr. Bosanko Medicine Co., Piquette, Ohio. Sold by P. A. Baker.

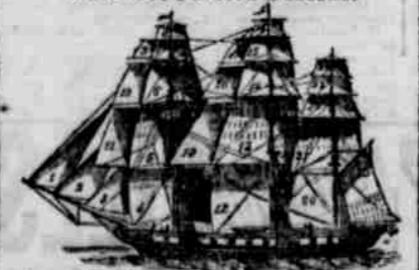

FARMERS!

And others who contemplate buying mowing machines this season can see one of the Henshaw Mowers by calling on the agent at P. B. Starnes's Grain Elevator in Brockway Centre. It has long been conceded that mowing machines have faults and imperfections common to all; but if this machine is not entirely free from faults and imperfections it is a very good machine, but can you get a much better one. Do NOT BE DECEIVED by yourself, and you will become convinced at once, that you have found just the machine that farmers want. It has points of excellence that are unsurpassed by any. This machine has a new style of Cutter Cap that always keeps the knives clean and therefore the machine will not choke or clog in wet or dry grass. This machine is free from unnecessary parts, in fact it is conceded to be the simplest mower in the field, and needs all the requirements of a grass cutting machine. Any team that can haul an empty wagon will be able to mow all day in the heaviest grass. Do NOT FAIL to see this machine before purchasing a mower.

SECOND EDITION.

For thirty cents in cash or ten three-cent stamps, we will mail any address postage prepaid, an octavo illustrated book of 112 pages, with handsome illuminated cover, entitled Donald McKay, or, The Last War Trail of the Modocs. This book is a true exponent of the old saying "Truth is stranger than fiction," and contains the romance of the life of Donald McKay, the great Scout and Chief of the Warm Spring Indians. The story is founded on fact, and is the only true history of the capture of Captain Jack, the Chief of the Modocs, the warrior who defied the United States troops in his Lava Beds; and every incident mentioned therein can be corroborated by Donald McKay, who is still living, and for whom this book was published.
